

Dominique Hoecherl, Coach Liaison

About

Dominique (Dom) grew up in Salt Lake City, Utah and is married to husband Ben. The Hoecherl's moved to Dublin in July of 2015 and have two daughters, Sophia and Bella.

Dom loves all things fitness; running races, helping others live a healthy lifestyle, while also spending time with her family. She is a certified health and fitness professional with an ACE certification (American Council of Education) and teaches group fitness classes at Lifetime Fitness.

Soccer Experience

Dom has been involved in soccer her whole life – with over 20 years of playing and coaching experience (ages 3 to adult). She played at the collegiate level at the University of Utah (Division 1) where she holds a degree in Sociology and Psychology.

Her qualifications and experience also include:

- The United States Soccer Federation (USSF) National “A” license
- Served on the Olympic Developmental Program (ODP) staff for Region IV
- Involvement with the Regional and State ODP programs in Utah and Colorado
- Director of Coaching, Youth Girls for the Colorado Rush from 2003 to 2014 (and many other roles within the club).
- Experience managing the Colorado Rush Recreational League
- General Manager, Colorado Rush W-League, semi-professional women's team.

Accomplishments

Over the course of her career, she has helped develop many youth programs via coach education and training aimed at getting the best out of players. Since moving to Ohio in 2015, Dom became the Coach Liaison for the Dublin Soccer League. She is also the head coach of two DSX teams.
